

Salvage One

A group of approximately ten people, including a bride in a white dress and several bridesmaids in brown dresses, are celebrating at night. They are holding and lighting sparklers. The background is a rustic wooden wall with a large sign that reads "THE BARN" in a decorative, wireframe font. The scene is illuminated by warm string lights and the bright sparks of the fireworks.

FAQ

Can We Schedule a Ceremony Rehearsal?

Yes! We will schedule your rehearsal within the two days before your wedding date (except holidays), subject to our events schedule. Since we may book an event the evening before yours, we will contact you 2-3 months before your date to confirm the time of your rehearsal.

May I Handpick Inventory for my Event?

We do not allow clients to pick specific inventory. Items may sell between our last meeting and the date. At the final walk through we guarantee inventory numbers for dining and lounge groupings, but can't guarantee specific pieces.

May I Use Inventory/Props from Salvage One for my Decor?

No. Salvage One does not allow items from the store to be used as decor for events.

If You Guarantee Seating for Only 175 People, What Happens if my Guest Count Exceeds that Number?

If additional dining tables and chairs are needed, you will need to rent to offset. We are happy to provide recommendations as to what works best.

Can my Guests Arrive Before the Contracted Start Time?

Your event may not start and the bar cannot open before the contracted time but guests may arrive earlier.

Is Salvage One BYOB?

All alcohol must be handled by the caterer. We have an exclusive list of caterers and they are all willing to work with you directly on where and how to obtain alcohol for your event.

Is Salvage One Handicap Accessible?

Yes! We have an elevator, and wheelchair access is available through the courtyard.

Do You Have Rooftop Access for Photos?

No, we do not have rooftop access but we do have three floors and a courtyard with endless photo opportunities.

Can We Come for Engagement Photos?

Absolutely! Engagement shoots are complimentary for couples getting married at Salvage One. Otherwise, the rate is $150/hour.

APPROVED CATERING COMPANIES

We require our clients to work with a caterer on our approved list. It is our policy to NOT take commissions from caterers. It is important to us that our clients are well taken care of by caterers we trust and that those caterers are treating our space as if it were their own.
